

Step 1: Decide on your Fundraiser

Whether this is your first time or you're a seasoned fundraiser, everyone needs a little inspiration to get started. Ask us for an A-Z of sponsored event ideas or there are a few suggestions below to get you underway:

Charity Auction

Charity auctions are a really popular way of raising money and can be cheap to run if you're creative in the way you source prizes. Try it on-line.

Daily Indulgence Drop

Simply give up one thing you treat yourself to every day – that sneaky packet of crisps, chocolate bar, or latte. Just pop the money you would spend in one of our collection boxes and see how quickly it mounts up

Get Your Locks Off

Why not take on a challenge that's head and shoulders above the others? Be bold and get sponsored to shave your head. With the help of family members or friends grab some clippers and collect some sponsorship

Eating Competition

How many doughnuts can you eat without licking your lips? How about crackers without water? When it comes to food there are lots of challenges out there, particularly for fans of I'm A Celebrity, Get me Out of Here.

Stop that Commute

Commuting is, for many, a thing of the past. Not only do you save time, you save money too. Why not donate it to Women's Work?

Hold a virtual quiz

A quiz night is always fun, even when it's virtual. Why not host a quiz that your friends and colleagues could play after work. Set a small fee to take part and the winner splits the money between themselves and Women's Work

Sponsored Endurance Challenge

Why not raise money as well as getting fit? You could do a sponsored run, bike ride, swim, hike, even a meditation-athon or a zumbathon.

PayPal Giving Fund

Sell unwanted items on eBay for Charities and you can choose to donate a percentage (or all!) of the sale price to Women's Work. Click here to sell items or for more information visit PayPal Giving Fund for more information.
